Avoiding the Spending Game Known as "Fads"

Ever spent a ton of money on something that you thought was lame two weeks later?

Karen found cool red clogs at Target. She bought them and wore them to school. Everybody loved them. In two weeks, 16 girls had the same clogs! They weren't so special any more.

How to avoid spending on fads:

- Wait a few days before you buy something;
- Think about whether you would keep on wearing or using it if your friends didn't like it;
- Treat yourself to something that costs less;
- Save the money in your credit union account instead.

How to enjoy fads inexpensively:

- Draw a character that does all of the trendy fads;
- Decorate it with latest fads copied or cut from magazines;
- Change the cutouts as the fads change.
